Siemens: Communications Internship 2026/27 Apply Online

Description

Siemens Healthineers is seeking a motivated and enthusiastic Communications Intern to join our dynamic team. As a Communications Intern, you will have the opportunity to gain hands-on experience in various aspects of corporate communications within a leading medical technology company. This internship offers exposure to strategic communication initiatives, internal and external communications, media relations, content creation, and digital marketing.

Responsibilities

- Assist in the development and execution of internal and external communication plans.
- Support the creation of content for various communication channels, including press releases, social media posts, newsletters, and website updates.
- Conduct research on industry trends, competitors, and relevant topics to contribute to communication strategies.
- Assist in managing social media platforms and engaging with online communities.
- Support media relations efforts, including drafting pitches, building media lists, and tracking press coverage.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to ensure alignment and consistency in messaging.
- Provide administrative support for communication projects and events, including scheduling meetings, preparing materials, and organizing logistics.
- Contribute fresh ideas and innovative approaches to enhance communication strategies and campaigns.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in a Bachelor's or Master's degree program in Communications, Public Relations, Journalism, Marketing, or a related field.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills, with a keen eye for detail and accuracy.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
- Familiarity with social media platforms and digital communication tools.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.
- Excellent organizational and time management skills, with the ability to prioritize tasks effectively.
- Enthusiasm for learning and a proactive attitude towards taking on new challenges.
- Previous internship or relevant experience in communications or marketing is a plus.
