- Assist in the creation and implementation of marketing campaigns across various channels, including social media, email marketing, and print media.
- Support the planning and execution of events, promotions, and product launches.
- Provide exceptional customer service by addressing inquiries, resolving issues, and ensuring a positive shopping experience for customers.
- Contribute to improving operational efficiencies and suggest innovative ideas to enhance business performance.
- Collect and analyze data to generate reports and present findings to the team or management.
- Stay updated on industry trends, competitor activities, and customer behavior to make informed recommendations.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in a relevant degree program or recently graduated.
- Passionate about the retail industry, fashion, and consumer trends.
- Strong communication skills, both verbal and written.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
- Detail-oriented with excellent organizational and multitasking abilities.
- Ability to work well in a team and independently.
- Adaptability and willingness to learn and take on new challenges.
- Positive attitude, self-motivated, and enthusiastic.

Job Benefits

- Hands-on experience in a reputable retail company with a diverse brand portfolio.
- Opportunity to learn from experienced professionals in the industry.
- Exposure to various aspects of retail operations, marketing, and customer service.
- Networking opportunities with colleagues and industry experts.
- Potential for future career opportunities within TFG based on performance and business needs.

Contacts

- Visit the TFG Careers Website: Go to the official TFG careers website, which should have a dedicated section for internships or graduate programs. You can typically find this section by navigating to the “Careers” or “Join Our Team” page on the website.
- Explore Available Internship Opportunities: Browse through the list of available internships to find positions that align with your interests, skills, and educational background. Read the job descriptions, requirements, and any specific instructions provided for each internship.
- Prepare Your Application Materials: Update your resume/CV to highlight relevant education, coursework, skills, and any previous work experience. Craft a well-written cover letter expressing your interest in the internship and explaining why you believe you would be a good fit for the role.
- Complete the Online Application: Follow the instructions provided on the TFG website to submit your application. This typically involves filling out an online application form and uploading your resume/CV and cover letter. Ensure that you provide accurate and up-to-date information.
- Submit Additional Documents if Required: Some internships may require additional documents, such as academic transcripts, letters of recommendation, or a portfolio. Make sure you have these prepared and submit them as instructed.
- Double-Check Your Application: Before submitting your application, review all the information you have provided to ensure accuracy and completeness. Look for any grammatical or spelling errors, and make any necessary corrections.
- Submit Your Application: Once you are confident in your application materials, submit them through the online application system as per the instructions on the TFG website. Take note of any confirmation or reference numbers provided upon submission.
- Follow up: After submitting your application, you may choose to follow up with TFG’s HR department to express your continued interest and inquire about the application review process. This can be done through email or phone, using the contact details provided on the website.
